

Don't weaken Wisconsin's Do Not Call List to allow banking institutions to contact former clients for up to 18 months. I already get junk mail from every bank in the area weekly, don't waste me time further by calling me. I also feel it will "open the door" to further exceptions and before long, we'll be back where we started, getting annoying phone calls on a regular basis.